

Master the HE(ART) of Teaching

SIMPSON UNIVERSITY

Redding, CA

Master of Arts in Education

Courses are on weekends: Fridays 5:00-8:00, Saturdays 9:00-5:00

Master of Arts in Education: Curriculum Concentration (Begin in any semester)

- Transfer in three courses from teacher credentialing program (9 credits not over 10 years old by the completion of your program)
- Prerequisites: Educational Psychology; Philosophical Foundations in Education
- New Teachers and Mentors can earn Graduate Credits (6) for an approved Induction Program for the current academic year in lieu of thesis for only $55 per credit ($330)

The following courses are at the tuition rate of $620 per credit:

SUMMER

Research & Writing (3)
Tests, Measurements & Assessment Theory (3)

FALL

Leadership in Vision and Change (3)
Foundations and Trends (3)

SPRING

Leadership in Curriculum, Instruction & Supervision (4)

At the end of your first year of an Induction Program you will apply for the 6 Induction Graduate Credits for only $330.

To enroll in the MA in Education: Apply online at simpsonu.edu/apply

Contact Robert Kovacs, Enrollment Counselor, for application information:

Robert Kovacs, Enrollment Counselor

rkovacs@simpsonu.edu

530.226.4527

Contact Dr. Paul Jones, Director of MA, for program information:

Dr. Paul Jones, Director of MA

pjones@simpsonu.edu

530.226.2189