What do I need to know in order to adequately prepare to be either the Respondent or the Complainant for a Student Conduct Board Hearing?

The Process:

- A Student Conduct Board Hearing date will be set 5-15 days from the time an allegation is presented to the Respondent.

- The Respondent (the student(s) who has (have) been accused of violating the Code) and/or Complainant (the SU community member bringing forth the allegation) may choose an Advisor to prep them before the hearing and to be present at hearing. Advisors will be present to support the Complainant and/or Respondent but will not address the board.

- The Respondent and/or Complainant may arrange for witnesses to present pertinent information to Student Conduct Board. The Respondent and Complainant must notify the Student Conduct Administrator with the name and contact information of all witnesses that will participate in the SCB Hearing at least 48 hours before the Hearing occurs. Failure to submit these names by the time specified may result in the refusal to include their testimony(ies) in the hearing.

- The Respondent may arrange for character witnesses that may be called by the Student Conduct Board.

- Witnesses will be present in the room only during the time they are giving their testimony. They will not be privy to the private information that is given throughout the remainder of the hearing.

- The Respondent and/or Complainant have the option to prepare an impact statement (opening statement) as well as a closing statement. Statements are not to exceed 5 minutes.

- The Respondent and/or Complainant may present pertinent information during the hearing and will have the opportunity to question/respond to questions from the other party as well as any witnesses during the hearing. All questions must be directed to the chairperson of the Student Conduct Board. The Respondent and Complainant will never address each other directly.
• Student Conduct Board hearing is held. Students and their Advisors, if any, shall be allowed to attend the entire portion of the Student Conduct Board Hearing at which information is received.

Helpful Reading To Prepare For The Hearing:

• Simpson Traditional Undergraduate Handbook includes the following which is available online at http://www.simpsonu.edu/handbook

STUDENT CONDUCT BOARD HEARING OUTLINE

1. INTRODUCTIONS
   - Student Conduct Board
   - Respondent
   - Respondent’s advisor
   - Complainant
   - Complainant’s advisor
   - Witnesses

2. THE ROLE OF THE ADVISOR(S)

3. REMINDER ABOUT FALSIFICATION, DISTORTION, MISREPRESENTATION

4. WITNESSES EXCUSED

5. CHALLENGE FOR BIAS

6. INTRODUCTION OF CHARGES
   The Student Conduct Board Chair reads each of the violations of the Student Disciplinary Code, which the Respondent is alleged to have violated.

7. RESPONSE OF THE RESPONDENT – RESPONSIBLE OR NOT RESPONSIBLE
   If the Respondent does not accept responsibility for violating each of the provisions of the Student Code listed above, then the Student Conduct Board Hearing shall proceed.

   If the Respondent does accept responsibility for violating each of the provisions of the Student Code listed above, then the Student Conduct Board Hearing shall proceed with the presentation of information limited to that which should be considered in the imposition of sanctions.

8. BEGIN INFORMATIONAL PORTION OF HEARING

9. AFFIRMATION OF TRUTH
   Witnesses will be asked to affirm to tell the truth.
   “I do solemnly sincerely and truly affirm that the testimony I shall give will be the truth.”

10. INTRODUCTORY STATEMENTS BY COMPLAINTANT AND RESPONDENT
    The Complainant and Respondent will be provided the opportunity to share introductory remarks, which should not exceed five (5) minutes. You are not required to do so. If you have prepared an Impact Statement in writing or wish to make one orally, you may do so at this time.

11. WITNESS TESTIMONIES (Complainant, Respondent & Then Additional Witnesses)
    The members of the Student Conduct Board will have the opportunity to question each witness starting with the Complainant and the Respondent as the first witnesses. After the SCB has concluded its questioning of a witness, the Complainant followed by the Respondent will be able to have questions asked of the witness (unless they themselves are the witness). Following the conclusion of the Student Conduct Board’s questioning, the individual calling the witness, followed by the other individual in the case will have opportunity to have questions asked of the witness. Before a witness is excused, the chair will ask members of the Student Conduct Board and the Complainant and Respondent if they have final questions.

All questions by the Complainant and Respondent of witnesses should be directed to the chair of the Student Conduct Board.

12. COMPLAINANT TESTIMONY

Student Conduct Board will question the complainant.

After completion of questioning by the Student Conduct Board, the Complainant will be given the opportunity to provide additional information to the Board.

Respondent may ask questions to be directed to the Complainant.

13. RESPONDENT TESTIMONY

Student Conduct Board will question the Respondent.

After completion of questioning by the Student Conduct Board, the Respondent will be given the opportunity to provide additional information to the Board.

Complainant may ask questions to be directed to the Respondent.

14. TESTIMONY OF ADDITIONAL WITNESS(ES)

After the Complainant and the Respondent have testified, the following procedures will be followed for additional witnesses called by the Student Conduct Board.

a. Student Conduct Board will call the next witness

   Student Conduct Board will question witness.

   Complainant may ask questions to be directed to the witness.

   Respondent may ask questions to be directed to the witness.

   An opportunity will be given for any final questions before excusing witness.

   This process is repeated until the Student Conduct Board has called each witness.

b. Complainant may ask the Board to call any additional witnesses.

   Student Conduct Board will question witness.

   Complainant may ask questions to be directed to the witness.

   Respondent may ask questions to be directed to the witness.

   An opportunity will be given for any final questions before excusing witness.

   This process is repeated until each of the Complainant’s witnesses have been called.

c. Respondent may ask the Board to call any additional witnesses.

   Student Conduct Board will question witness.
Respondent may ask questions to be directed to the witness.

Complainant may ask questions to be directed to the witness.

An opportunity will be given for any final questions before excusing witness.

This process is repeated until each of the Respondent's witnesses have been called.

At this point, the chair should ask the members of the Student Conduct Board if they have any final questions for the Complainant or the Respondent.

15. CONCLUDING REMARKS FROM THE COMPLAINANT AND RESPONDENT
At this time, the Complainant and the Respondent will be provided the opportunity to make concluding remarks. They are not required to do so.

16. EXCUSING OF THE COMPLAINANT, RESPONDENT AND ADVISORS – SCB DELIBERATION
At this time, we would ask that the Complainant, Respondent, and their advisors (if any) leave the Student Conduct Board Hearing room so that the members of the Student Conduct Board may determine if the Respondent is responsible for any of the violations of the Student Code with which he/she has been charged.

After the determination regarding responsibility is made, you will be asked to return to this room. The Student Conduct Board will announce its decision regarding responsibility. If the Respondent is found not responsible concerning all charges, the Student Conduct Board Hearing will be adjourned. If the Respondent is found responsible concerning any charges, the Student Conduct Board will consider the following additional information related to sanctioning:

A. Character witnesses on behalf of the Respondent;

B. Any prior violations of the Student Code by the Respondent; and

C. Recommendations for sanctioning from the Complainant and the Respondent.

Once the Student Conduct Board has concluded its deliberations concerning responsibility on each alleged violation, the Complainant, and Respondent are called back into the Student Conduct Board Hearing.

17. HEARING RESUMES – SHARING OF SCB DECISION (RESPONSIBLE/NOT RESPONSIBLE)

18. IF FOUND NOT RESPONSIBLE
If the Respondent is found not responsible of all charges, the SCB Hearing will be concluded.

19. IF FOUND RESPONSIBLE - CALLING OF CHARACTER WITNESSES
If the Respondent is found responsible of any charge, character witnesses may be called by the Respondent.

He/she will be asked to share the nature of his/her acquaintance with the Respondent and comment on his/her character.

Student Conduct Board will further question the witness.

Respondent may ask questions to be directed to the witness.

Complainant may ask questions to be directed to the witness.
This process is repeated as necessary until each witness has been questioned.

Complainant may offer any comments to the SCB for consideration in the imposition of sanctions.

Respondent may offer any comments to the SCB for consideration in the imposition of sanctions.

20. EXCUSING OF THE COMPLAINANT, RESPONDENT AND ADVISORS – SCB DELIBERATION OF SANCTIONS

Complainant, Respondent, and their advisors leave the Student Conduct Board Hearing room so that the members of the Student Conduct Board may determine the sanctions to be recommended in the case.

21. INTRODUCTION OF PRIOR VIOLATIONS OF STUDENT CODE

Once the Respondent, Complainant and their advisor(s) have exited the room, the SCA will introduce any prior violations of the Student Code.

After the Student Conduct Administrator considers the Student Conduct Board’s sanctioning recommendations, and determines what sanctions to impose, the Respondent and Complainant have the opportunity to return to this room.

The decision regarding sanctions will be announced. You may choose not to attend the announcement of the sanctions. Regardless, the Respondent and Complainant (if a student) will receive written notification of the outcome of the Student Conduct Board Hearing.

22. HEARING RESUMES – RECOMMENDED SANCTIONS BY SCB

Once the Student Conduct Board has concluded its deliberations the Respondent and Complainant are called back into the Student Conduct Board Hearing.

Reading each of the sanctions imposed in the case.

23. APPEALS

The decision may be appealed within five (5) working days of receipt of written notification of the decision in this case. Appeals should be made in writing and delivered to the Student Conduct Administrator. Decisions of the Student Conduct Board and/or the Student Conduct Administrator may be appealed on the following grounds only:

A. The original Student Conduct Board Hearing was not conducted fairly in light of the charges and information presented, and not in conformity with prescribed procedures giving the Complainant a reasonable opportunity to prepare and to present information that the Student Code was violated, and giving the Respondent a reasonable opportunity to prepare and to present a rebuttal of those allegations.

B. The decision reached in this case was not based on substantial information.

C. The sanctions were not appropriate for the violation of the Student Code, which the Respondent was found to have committed.

D. New information, sufficient to alter a decision, is now available which was not available to the person appealing at the time of the original Student Conduct Board Hearing. For more information, please refer to the Student Code which is published in the SU Student Handbook (www.simpsonu.edu/handbook).

24. FINAL QUESTIONS

One final opportunity for questions will be given.

25. CONCLUSION OF HEARING
