

Simpson University Music Scholarships

Music Major and Minor Scholarships

Students are not required to audition to be a part of the Simpson Music Program; however they will need to audition if they intend to qualify for a music scholarship.

Music Student Scholarship (up to $10,000 per year)

Students must complete a music audition for scholarships prior to the beginning of the semester. This is arranged through the music department or your Admissions counselor.

Please call the Music Department Administrative Assistant, Alayne Rodriguez, at (530) 226-4507 or by e-mailing arodriguez@simpsonu.edu

Audition Procedure:

- Submit scholarship application
- Submit two references
- Submit repertoire list
- Perform two pieces of contrasting genres

Large Ensemble Participation Scholarship ($750 per year)

The participation scholarship is awarded to all students who participate in a Music Department principal ensemble for two consecutive semesters. Please note that an audition is required to join any, and all, sponsored ensembles.

Available for students who are not Music Majors

Audition Procedure: Contact professor directing ensemble

Simpson Chorale
Shasta Symphony Orchestra

Dr. Dwayne Corbin
(530) 226-4175
dcorbin@simpsonu.edu

Minor Ensembles (not-eligible)
Percussion Ensemble – Dr. Dwayne Corbin

Worship Lab – Dr. Dan Pinkston
(530) 226-4721 or
dpinkston@simpsonu.edu

Scholarship is awarded at the discretion of the music faculty following an audition.*