

Roommate Success Plan – part 1

FIRST THINGS FIRST

1. Complete this first part on your own: Check all that apply to you personally. Be honest about your needs and expectations.
2. Set up a time to connect with your roommate(s). Complete the second part with your roommate.

COMMUNICATION

- I think it would be a good idea to have all of our class schedule detailed on a calendar.
- I think anyone that notices a problem should submit a maintenance request form and then let everyone else know.
- I'm usually really direct and will tell you what I need/want.
- I'm usually indirect and will need you to approach me.
- If I know a roommate is breaking the housing policies, I will approach them directly first.
- If I know a roommate is breaking the housing policies, I will most likely report them anonymously.
- When issues come up and we need to talk about them I prefer that you: tell me directly or write me a note

- I usually go to bed around _____ pm/am. I usually wake up about _____ am.
- I sleep with (a fan/white noise machine/music playing/lights on or need complete silence.)
- I have a hard time sleeping with (a fan/white noise machine/music playing/lights on or talking nearby.)
- If I'm sleeping, please don't wake me up unless there is an emergency.
- If I'm sleeping and you know I have to be in class, go ahead and wake me up.

STUDY HOURS

- I don't care what my roommates watch or listen to.
- I'd prefer to decorate our room together.
- I don't care either way. Everyone can add their own touch to the room.

CLEANING

- I'm messy, so I don't mind a messy room.
- I like a clean room and I don't mind cleaning it.
- I like a clean room and I would prefer that my roommate cleans their share.
- I don't like to clean and will put it off as long as I can.
- I don't mind pitching in and buying cleaning supplies, etc... as a group.
- I'd rather we all had our own cleaning supplies, etc...

VISITORS & GUESTS

- I'd prefer that your friends/significant other weren't over every day.
- I like having friends/significant others over all the time.
- I'd prefer that our room was "guest free" during finals week.
- If you plan to have friends over, I'd prefer that you be with them and not left alone in the room.
- I would prefer that you let me know ahead of time that a visitor was coming over.
- I'd prefer a day notice before a guest stayed the night.
- I don't care who stays in our room. You don't have to ask and I won't ask you.
- If I need study time, quiet space, or I'm not feeling well, I'd prefer that your guests find another location to hang out.
- If I want your guests to leave, I will ask you.
- If I want your guest to leave, I will ask them.
- If you have friends that do not agree with the lifestyle policies, I'd prefer that they did not visit our room.
