

BE DISCIPLED. MAKE DISCIPLES.

Should I apply to be a WorldSERVE Team LEADER or Team MEMBER?

You should apply to be a team leader IF:

- You love Jesus
- You've prayed about it and feel God is calling you into that role
- You've talked to friends, mentors, parents, or staff and they encourage you to lead a team
- You're at least a sophomore and will be 20 or older by spring
- You have and will maintain a GPA of at least 2.50
- You are willing to serve on whatever field and team you are matched with
- You've had prior experience on a mission team
- You've had prior experience in a leadership position on campus, in your church, or elsewhere
- You have a desire to disciple and guide your peers in a deeper understanding of God's heart for the nations
- You are willing to be disciplined by a Simpson faculty or staff person and held accountable in your spiritual walk
- Your schedule allows you to put in about 4-5 hours a week in training, preparation, fundraising, team meetings, etc.
- You are able to attend Leader Trainings on Mondays from 10:20-11:20am during Spring semester
- You are available weekly on either Tuesday evenings from 7:30-9:30pm to lead Team Meetings
- You are a learner and a servant, willing to humbly submit to your field hosts and to the WorldSERVE staff
- You are willing and happy to be a team member if not selected as a team leader

And if you don't think you can meet some of the above qualifications, then you should apply to be a team member! We are looking for any and all students willing to join God in reaching the nations. All we need are humble, teachable, servant hearts!
